CHRIST THE KING PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Christ the King as followers of Christ are challenged to help our Parish become a vibrant, loving, serving, worshipping, evangelising and sacramental community.

PARISH GROUPS & MINISTRIES

ADORATION

8am – 8.50am Monday – Friday before the celebration of the Eucharist.
2.30pm – 4.30pm Thursday for priestly vocations.

24-Hour Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament takes place in the parish every Friday 9.30am – Saturday 8.50am. This is an ongoing 'special time' for prayer and growing in love for the Lord, in this one-to-one encounter with Jesus. Please feel free to put your name on the Roster in the foyer.

Contact: Trish Paris Ph. 358 4516

ALTAR SERVERS

This is a Ministry of serving at Mass, on a voluntary basis. Students who have made their First Communion may volunteer – those attending Christ the King School, P.P.R.E. or other schools. The Co-ordinator arranges the roster, trains new servers and may provide some social activities to help children integrate.

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

The Christ the King ministry with young people is coordinated by the Parish Youth Coordinator and a Core team of young adult volunteers under the guidance of the Parish Priest and Parish Youth Council.

The ministry aims to offer a comprehensive engagement with young people focusing on eight key components: Prayer, Justice and Service, Community Life, Advocacy, Leadership Training, Pastoral Care, Evangelisation and Catechesis.

With this in mind we do the following:

- Run two Youth groups & Youth events for year 5 to 8 & year 9 to 13 students during the school term, offering Faith, Fun, Friendship & service of others.
- Run a Young Adults programme aimed at providing social events, prayer, formation & support for Tertiary Students and Young Adult Workers.
- Produce a regular update newsletter
- Maintain Youth Facebook groups & web pages on our parish website.
- Offer leadership training & support opportunities for Youth & Young Adults
- Coordinate a monthly Youth Mass
- Assist with sacramental programs
- Support advocacy for young people through the other parish bodies and ministries
